I. High Seas Drift Net (HSDN) Enforcement

There was no HSDN enforcement activity conducted over the reporting period. The 2015 North Pacific Anadromous Fish Convention (NPAFC) Joint Patrol Scheduling Meeting (JPSM) was held via email from 29 February to 3 March. The JPSM facilitated the development of a combined patrol schedule and will assist in coordinating 2016 enforcement efforts of the NPAFC Convention Area. The next HSDN enforcement patrol is scheduled to last 90 days, with six weeks of supporting flights by USCG HC-130 aircraft. USCGC MELLON will conduct the Coast Guard's 2016 HSDN patrol. Five countries have also committed surface and air assets to combat IUU fishing in 2016. Russia will provide surface and air assets from Kamchatka and Sakhalin Districts. Both China and Korea have scheduled to deploy patrol vessels in the North Pacific and Japan has committed to approximately 200 hours of patrol flights. Finally, Canada is scheduled to stage a CP-140 patrol aircraft out of Japan for approximately three weeks.

II. U.S./Russian Maritime Boundary Line (MBL) Enforcement

Activity along the MBL was light over the reporting period. There was no activity from December 2015 through February 2016, and an average of four vessels operating within 20 miles of the MBL in March 2016. One USCG C-130 patrol of the MBL was conducted on 22 March with seven foreign fishing vessels sighted in Russian waters and no incursions detected. No surface patrols of the MBL were conducted during December 2015 through March 2016, due to the low levels of vessel activity near the line.

III. Halibut and Sablefish Enforcement

The IFQ halibut and sablefish fisheries opened at 1200 local time on 19 March. The Seventeenth District focused enforcement efforts around the region on monitoring the season opener. Air Station Kodiak C-130 and MH-60 flights and one patrol boat patrolled the Gulf of Alaska during the weekend of the opener. There were eight boardings of vessels fishing recreational or subsistence halibut during the reporting period and no fisheries violations were detected.

IV. Crab Fisheries

The Coast Guard focused commercial vessel safety enforcement activities on the Bering Sea crab fisheries, with CGC MUNRO, CGC WAESCHE, CGC MELLON, and CGC ALEX HALEY conducting nine boardings on vessels targeting Red King Crab, eight boardings on vessels targeting Bering Sea Tanner Crab, and nine boardings on vessels targeting Bering Sea Snow Crab. There were two safety violations found on two vessels during the boardings, one for expired flares and one for not possessing the original vessel Certificate of Documentation on board. In addition, a Coast Guard helicopter was forward deployed to Cold Bay for search and rescue standby.

V. Commercial Fishing Vessel Boarding Statistics

There were 112 domestic fisheries and fishing vessel safety boardings conducted by the U.S. Coast Guard during the reporting period. These boardings resulted in a total of 24 safety violations onboard thirteen vessels and eight federal fisheries violations onboard thirteen vessels.

Figures 1 and 2 show the historic trends for boardings and violations. Appendices B and C list the boardings which occurred during the reporting period.

VI. Commercial Fishing Vessel Safety/Search and Rescue Cases

During the reporting period, 24 safety violations were detected on thirteen vessels. There was one voyage termination during the reporting period for safety violations composing an especially hazardous condition. A comprehensive list of violations can be found in Appendix C.

There were 27 SAR cases involving fishing vessels in U.S. waters, resulting in six lives saved, no lives lost, and no vessel sinkings. Appendix A provides a comprehensive list of search and rescue cases involving fishing vessels over the reporting period.
