Date: Friday, September 12, 2025 [12:30 pm – 4:00 pm] Seattle Time
IN-PERSON MEETING @ LEIF ERIKSON HALL, 2245 NW 57th ST. SEATTLE, WA 98107
Hybrid Meeting Options: Zoom Info Below

---

BSFRF and ABSC would like to welcome all industry folks, researchers, and managers who are interested and available to participate with us in person at the 2025 Crab Science Symposium this year. We are encouraging folks to come join in person and have a light lunch with us, but a virtual option (see ZOOM link) is available for those who can't attend. We'll share out PDFs of the presentations at the conclusion of the workshop. Our planned talks this year are shorter, with some dedicated time for Q/A. We hope to see you at the Symposium! [No official press please]

12:30 Pizza & Salad, setup, Zoom connect

Folks can grab a slice, some salad, a cold beverage and find a seat to tune in.
[Remote and online folks listening in via Zoom, we'll have a host to help with questions]

1:10 Ms. Jamie Goen / Mr. Scott Goodman (10 min)

Intros for industry efforts to get through low stock periods, research that is continuing and being planned, and what we can do further to help

1:20 Dr. Mike Litzow (NMFS/Kodiak) (20 min including Q/A)

2025 NMFS summer survey results with a focus on the 3 primary stocks and some additional research updates (tags, other collaborations, etc.)

1:40 Dr. Ginny Eckert (UAF/Juneau) (20 min including Q/A)

AKCRRAB Research & Next Steps – Dr. Eckert will provide an overview on the program next steps, latest funding, and immediate plans/progress

2:00 Mr. Scott Goodman (BSFRF) (20 min including Q/A)

BSFRF research plans for 2025 and beyond, overcoming some challenges this year, improving strategies/communication, and details of field work in 2026-2028

2:20 SHORT BREAK – resume at 2:30 for Q/A

2:30 ROUND TABLE / INDUSTRY QUESTIONS / DISCUSSION 2:30 – 4:00

Open forum for crab research, management, and related questions. Several researchers can chime in – likely Stock Assessment Authors and several other crab researchers available.
