

Fall Crab Science Symposium – AGENDA

“Crab Surveys, Season Outlook, and Crab on the Move”

Date: Friday, September 18, 2026 [9:00 am – 2:00 pm] Seattle Time
IN-PERSON MEETING @ LEIF ERIKSON HALL, 2245 NW 57th ST. SEATTLE, WA 98107
Hybrid Meeting Options: Zoom Info Below - [No official press please]

BSFRF and ABSC would like to welcome all interested industry folks, researchers, and managers to participate with us in person at the 2026 Crab Science Symposium. We encourage folks to join in person and have a light lunch with us, but a virtual option (see ZOOM link) is available for those who can't attend. After the talks, we will have dedicated time for Q&A and roundtable discussion. We will also have a table highlighting ocean technology with hands-on examples, featuring smart buoys from Blue Ocean Gear and Marine Service and Supply Inc., navigation software from Time-Zero, temperature/depth sensors from Ocean Data Network, and glove examples from Superior Glove. We are also fielding interest from industry members to engage in a freezing spray reporting project through Skipper Science. We hope to see you at the Symposium!
