

Council Meetings

The Operations Manual contains a good summary of FACA requirements for meetings and their conduct.

The meeting place is the prerogative of the Council. The Act requires that it be within the State of Alaska for the North Pacific Council but we have had legal advice to the effect that joint meetings with the Pacific Council outside of Alaska would be permissible if they deal with subjects of mutual interest and responsibility to both Councils.